

MUCH ANTICIPATED ANNUAL “HOLIDAY WINE SHOP SALE” AT TULALIP RESORT CASINO OFFERS LIMITED-TIME SPECIALS ON EXCEPTIONAL WINE AND SPIRITS, NOVEMBER 22-23

ONCE-A-YEAR SALE FOR VALUES ON FINE WINES, SPIRITS AND GIFTS

TULALIP, Wash. (November 9, 2021) Just in time for entertaining and gift giving, the annual “Holiday Wine Shop Sale” returns to Tulalip Resort Casino November 22-23 spotlighting top winemakers, top-shelf spirits and gift items. While the event features values on wines and spirits from across the U.S. and around the world, there is always a special focus on highlighting local, Northwest wineries and distilleries.

The event is staged in the resort’s Tula Bene restaurant and is open from 4 to 8 p.m. each day. This year’s sale will feature more than 100 hand-selected wines and presents an excellent opportunity to purchase premium, hard-to-find selections. The much-anticipated event includes new offerings each day and limited tastings.

“November is the perfect time to share these incredible pours,” said Tulalip Resort Casino Sommelier Tom Thompson. “It allows us to make room in the Resort’s cellar for new arrivals. Moreover, the two-day sales gives individuals a chance to shop for gifts and stock their own cellars, as well. The best way to find out what we are offering is to come early. The fun is in the hunt.”

Thompson’s “picks” from the resort’s vast wine and spirits program include a surprising selection of sought-after wines including highly limited offerings from Cayuse Vineyards and exciting new favorites from Alki, The Walls, Division Wines and others.

Other regional favorites include multiple vintages from Quilceda Creek Winery, a great selection of wines from Corliss Estate, and selections from Leonetti Cellar, Klipsan Vineyards and Cote Bonnevillie, to name a few. Napa wines will be well represented, joined by limited availability of cult selections from Screaming Eagle Winery, Cakebread Cellars, Nickel & Nickel and Harlan Estate.

Thompson has added a limited selection of aged spirits including several of the most sought-after whiskeys on the market. They include offerings for America's cult distillers including the Buffalo Trace Antique Collection (BTAC) Series, including Eagle Rare & WL Weller, as well as new finds from Willett, Maker's Mark, E.H. Taylor and Blanton's. For savvy connoisseurs, a new "must have" is the opportunity to purchase a few bottles from Sazerac's limited series Jung & Wulff luxury brand. "Early birds" may also be fortunate to purchase rare Asian whiskies and fine tequilas.
