Tulalip Resort Casino's much-anticipated annual "Holiday Wine Shop Sale" offers limited-time specials on exceptional wine and spirits, November 23-25

Tulalip, Washington – A holiday tradition, Tulalip Resort Casino's "Holiday Wine Shop Sale" returns November 23-25 featuring 'hidden gems' and a sought-after selection of local, national and international wines and spirits. The three-day event presents an excellent opportunity to purchase premium, hard-to-find selections for holiday gift giving and entertaining.

Located in the Resort's Tula Bene restaurant and open from 4 to 8 p.m., this year's sale will feature more than 100 hand-selected wines and spirits, including offerings from top winemakers at Leonetti Cellar, DRC, Domaine Curry, ZD, Harlan Estate, Quilceda Creek, Doubleback, Kosta Browne, Screaming Eagle and many others.

Adding to the holiday 'spirit' for the 2020 sale, the resort's own wine sommelier, Tom Thompson, has added a limited selection of aged spirits to his offerings, including some of the most sought-after whiskeys on the market. They include aged collectible Far East malts to America's cult collection of distillers, including BTAC, Weller and Colonel E.H. Taylor. In-the-know early birds may be fortunate to purchase a bottle or two of the highly sought-after Pappy Van Winkle and Eagle Rare "The Double Eagle" bourbons.

The much-anticipated event includes new offerings each day and limited tastings.

"We're excited to offer some of our favorite finds, and November is the perfect time to share these incredible pours," said Thompson. "It allows us to make room in the Resort's cellar for several new arrivals. Moreover, it gives individuals a chance to shop for gifts and fill their own cellars as well!"
