Third straight win for Tulalip Resort Casino; awards program highlights top meeting facilities and destination marketing organizations across North America

TULALIP, Wash. (October 2, 2025) — Tulalip Resort Casino was recently named one of only 18 elite hotel properties in the Western U.S. as winner of the 2025 Best of Meetings Today Awards, an annual program highlighting the top meeting facilities and destination marketing organizations (DMOs) in North America. Earning the recognition from meetings industry professionals for the third straight year, Tulalip Resort Casino was selected through voting by the Meetings Today audience and content team.

Nomination criteria for the awards included quality of meeting space, guest rooms, guest services and amenities, food and beverage service, efficiency and helpfulness of staff, availability and quality of technology, recreational facilities and activities, cleanliness, and overall value and experience. The criteria for nominating destinations was the overall service they provided to planners for their meetings and events.

“This award is especially meaningful as we strive to deliver meticulously planned, productive and creative events of all sizes. We’re gratified to earn this recognition once again from our peers in the meetings industry, and our entire team shares in this honor,” said Tracy Goolsby, Interim Vice President of Hotel Operations.

“These venues and destinations represent the top options available for meetings and events, with a history of service and knowledge about the specific needs of meeting and event planners,” said Tyler Davidson, vice president and chief content director of Meetings Today. “This list is a fantastic resource for our audience when researching meeting venues and destinations for their programs.”
